

PROJECT CONTEXT

The BRISWA 2.0 project will address issues related to racism and xenophobia in higher education, in general by trying to raise awareness toward a more accepting approach to diversity, through the development of useful tools to explore the different shades of the phenomenon and to understand the dynamics and motivations behind them.

AIMS OF THE PROJECT

The aim of the BRISWA 2.0 project is to provide an in-depth understanding of how racism manifests itself and establish an Higher Education training course to combat it especially in sport.

The project promotes inclusion and diversity in education, emphasizing innovative teaching methods.

The project underlines the importance of informed engagement to address racism and advocates civic participation in combating it.
